Oklahoma State Ethics Commission

The Ethics Commission is a constitutional state agency, consisting of five members, who serve terms of five years. The Governor, Attorney General, President Pro Tempore of the Senate, Speaker of the House of Representatives, and Chief Justice of the Supreme Court each appoints a person who is a registered voter of the State. A Commissioner is not eligible for elected office for two years after completing his or her term.

The mission of the Commission is to promote Oklahoma citizens' confidence in state government. To that end, the Commission:

1. promulgates rules of ethical conduct for state officers and employees, including civil penalties for violations of such rules;
2. promulgates rules of ethical conduct for state candidate and issue campaigns, including civil penalties for violations of such rules;
3. assists in and monitors the disclosure of campaign financing by state and local candidates and committees, personal financial disclosure by state and county officers and employees, and registration and reporting by lobbyists;
4. assists in and monitors the political activity and official conduct of state officers/employees in order to prevent conflicts of interest;
5. serves as the repository for, and makes available for public inspection and copying, all required disclosure documents; and
6. issues opinions on the constitutional rules, and investigates and prosecutes alleged violations thereof.
